Let's understand who you are by Zerology!

The first, find your element and Zodiac animal from your D.O.B.

The winter (Unexpected, 0/Rooting, and Clean up)

It is the key to “Try not expect much, try to be patient, appreciate and respectful”.

The Winter is begin with feeling of sudden coldness from nature. When you wake up in the morning, the cold air comes around your neck, your body become tense for defensive reaction. There is snow outside, your car is in under the snow, very unexpectedly. You start looking for where the cold air is coming into your space. If there is blizzard outside, you will read book or cooking, writing letter, or contacting friends instead of going out skiing.

The season of the winter for human life is the same, like unexpected event and become sensitive and start looking for something negative cause. It is very important to continue doing what you are doing, or do what your friends (who care about you) or boss are suggesting you. It is NOT time for moving or changing job by your decision even getting unexpected relationship, UNLESS it is order from other (like boss asking to go different branch to work, or the renter is asking to move out). It is time to “study your life, though it is time to study academically as well, because if you study hard and focus on academic, then you will not make a time for negative. You may not be recognized, or feeling like betray because your work is all about rooting/underground work. The end of the winter is always “clean up, or detoxing” includes room, house, yard, storage, drawers, relationship as well with respectfully. It is easy to start something new, because your chart are heading up, rooting is done enough to able to grow bud, but the bud are still under the ground, better to be patient and wait till spring comes. The “clean up season is so easy to feel quitting, moving, rough, short, though put in your mind “patient and respect”.

The spring (Cultivate, Growing and Decision)

It is the time to be active!

The spring is cultivating season, the bud is finally appears on surface which means your action become recognized. The farming is time for cultivating time. Let's forgiven whatever happen in your winter season (includes yourself), let's move forward. It is the time to be active. Many people ease to feel resting because the spring weather feels so soft and warm, there is the time to rest in future, till then you need to active. The growing time, you may have growing pain as human been, it is the same as human life, you may have challenge, but the challenge will be fertilize you. Make connection, meet and contact people. Through the challenge, you will also meet your helper, too. The end of spring comes with decision making. You going to your deep inside, and find what you want to do truly, and honest to yourself. This decision making time, other things may happen which you may letting go bravely the things you start during winter season if there is. If you gain financially in the winter season, you also spend wisely before the summer season come for your blooming fertilize.

The summer (Recoup, Blossoming, and Transformation)

It is the time for blossoming, the key to “summer” is “Set back and rejuvenate first, though you have power to fully blossom! The key word is “Be polite and professional”.

You worked your best to cultivate, and made clear decision from your heart, then it is the time to recoup yourself which you set back and/or rest is good idea.

When the plants grow, and it makes decision naturally which makes only flower and which makes fruits, not all flower makes pumpkin, some flowers are only for blossoming, some has baby pumpkin at bottom of flower. The farmers even thinning out to make perfect one. When the hot summer comes, you will not go in the sun without preparing, or sometimes you only goes out certain time of the day.

The human life is the same way, after you made decision, you set back, rest and recoup yourself. It is the important season for that, because if you work hard as the spring season, you have no energy for hot summer (your blossoming season). When the summer comes, all your action will be appears more because the sun shine you, just like you have spot light focusing on YOU. You be cautious to be polite, respective and professional. You know what is your goal is. If you are not achieve (blossoming) as you want, then you be polite and adjust your action and relationship. After flower die, it is not the end. The petals are brown and dead, plants are transforming to seed, fruits for next generation/year. As human being, it is easy to loose identity, because you are not flower neither seeds, though you can be so lost, or floating or carry over the pride to be flower. This is the time for make sure you grounding and try to focus to make your seeds for following year.

The Autumn (Reopen, Harvest, and Fulfill)

It is the time for harvesting, the key to “the autumn” is “complete making seed for next circle, enjoy the harvest and fulfilling, and then prepare and store for the winter season”.

As flowers were blossomed, and plants are dying, because it is focusing to create the seeds or fruits for next circle. This is the season for recheck and reconsideration what kind of harvest you receive. It is also the time to enjoy your harvest. In the late autumn, you also need to put seed underground ready for winter and spring, which means for humans, we need to store food (and financially as well relationship) for the winter surprise. For the relationship, It is very important to show your deep appreciation.

If you do not see your harvest this time, then you still have chance to address your action and attitude to reconnect and recognize your true value. It is the last season before the winter. Please remember the story of Aesop’s Fables “ants and grasshopper”. Grasshopper never listen suggestion of other during nice fall weather, ate all food and never store it for the winter. As human life is the same, you can be very narrow mind, and forgot to listen and rest on their own laurels. In Step 3. You know the element and each season.

Last thing, you study each Zerology zodiac animal.

Each animal has characteristic nature, direction, time and month, color, body part represent.

Step 4. You study enough information, then Now, you need to observe the person's saying, doing and habit.

When I learn Zerology, I understood, and then my teacher told me that "observe and you will understand the nature of each person, each human being is the part of nature.

If the each human understand own season, and element nature, the respect and understand to self, can lead to deeper compassion and forgiveness to other, the result of it, makes much easier relationship and fun and less stressful life.
